

15 March 1810

Situation at the opening of the campaign. Heudelet and the French II Corps have begun withdrawing to Merida (not shown).

La Romana orders Ballasteros and Contreras to follow Mortier and probe the borders of Andalusia and make contact with the forces being landed near Huelva.

Mortier has retreated to Seville leaving a brigade at Santa Olalla to watch the approaches from Extremadura.

